HUMAN SERVICES
CAREER PRIMER

ON THE RISE
The human services field continues to grow in Massachusetts and the nation. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the field is projected to increase faster than the average for all occupations, adding at least 250,000 jobs by the year 2024.

SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE, AND CORE VALUES
Our curriculum prepares students in the theoretical and practical framework of this growing field. While completing their coursework, human services students build professional experience for their résumés through our applied service-learning programs and capstone.

BE PREPARED
You may be immersed in a community project, internship, or preparing a graduate school application. What you can do at any stage in your education or career:

- Stay in touch with your professors
- Keep current with online job postings
- Familiarize yourself with UMass Boston Career Services
- Visit our job boards in CPCS Plaza
- Connect with CPCS alumni network on LinkedIn
