Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was recently reviewed. Based on information that you reported, our staff is unable to document that you have a high school diploma or a similar equivalent.

In an effort to comply with Federal financial aid regulations, specifically the academic requirement that a student must have a high school diploma, or have the recognized equivalent of a high school diploma, Financial Aid Services is requesting you provide appropriate supporting documentation. Documentation may include a copy of:

- High school diploma
- Final official high school transcript that shows the date the diploma was awarded.
- General Educational Development (GED) Certificate or transcript indicating student passed the exam.
- For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a ‘secondary school leaving certificate” or other similar document.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
- A secondary school completion credential for homeschooled students from a state where the law requires such a credential – or – for a homeschooled student from a state where state law does not require a completion credential, submit a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

Please attach the appropriate documentation to this form and mail to Financial Aid Services, PO Box 850, Randolph, MA 02368. Financial aid will not be disbursed until the requested documentation has been received and reviewed. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above please contact Financial Aid Services.
