Leadership in Turbulent Times

Doris Kearns Goodwin is a world-renowned presidential historian, public speaker and Pulitzer Prizewinning, New York Times #1 best-selling author. Her seventh book, Leadership in Turbulent Times, was published in September 2018 to critical acclaim and became an instant New York Times bestseller. A culmination of Goodwin’s five-decade career of studying the American presidents focusing on Presidents Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, Franklin Roosevelt and Lyndon Baines Johnson, the book provides an accessible and essential road map for aspiring and established leaders in every field, and for all of us in our everyday lives.

Objectives:
• Identify key attributes of leaders who succeed through turbulent times
• Discuss commonalities between strong leaders through examples of past U.S. presidents

Emerging Issues in Nursing Leadership Research: An Editor’s Perspective

Dr. Karen Hill is the Chief Operating Officer/Chief Nursing Officer at Baptist Health Lexington and serves as the Editor-in-Chief for the Journal of Nursing Administration. Dr. Hill presents internationally on leadership development and bringing evidence to practice. Dr. Hill will profile findings from current nursing leadership research, gaps she sees in applying research findings in practice, and will share tips for working with an Editor to publish your work.

Objectives:
• Identify emerging issues from the literature related to nursing administration and leadership
• Discuss tips for working with an Editor to publish your work

Member: $225
Non-Member: $275

Register here