Enrolling Your Student in the Boston-Area School Systems

Enrollment in Boston Public Schools
The Boston Public Schools system – frequently referred to as “BPS” - is a large public school system serving the City of Boston. You must live within the limits of the City of Boston to send your child to a BPS school. The City of Boston includes all of the following neighborhoods:

- Allston
- Back Bay
- Bay Village
- Beacon Hill
- Brighton
- Charlestown
- Chinatown
- Dorchester
- Downtown
- East Boston
- Fenway/Kenmore
- Hyde Park
- Jamaica Plain
- Mattapan
- Mission Hill
- North End
- Roslindale
- Roxbury
- South Boston
- South End
- West End
- West Roxbury

UMass Boston is located in the Boston neighborhood of Dorchester.

The BPS website offers a wealth of information about enrolling your child in their school system. Below are some helpful links.

English Language Learners
The BPS system offers classrooms that support students who are not yet fluent in English. Students who are not yet fluent in English are called “English language learners” in the BPS system, and the students and programs that serve them are often referred to as “ELL”. Below are some helpful links from the BPS website that provide information about BPS ELL offerings.
