English as a Second Language Programs • College of Advancing and Professional Studies • UMass Boston

Application for Full-time ESL Programs

Our University Preparation and Intensive English language programs offer full-time, comprehensive study of English as a second language in a university setting. The University Preparation track is designed for students preparing for degree study at American universities and is also suitable for professionals who need to improve their English language skills. The Intensive English track is designed for participants at beginning and intermediate proficiency levels who wish to progress rapidly. International students seeking admission to UMass Boston undergraduate programs may substitute successful study in the University Preparation program in lieu of submitting the TOEFL or IELTS scores.

A Few Frequently Asked Questions:

Can I work or volunteer while I am attending UMass Boston on a student visa?
F-1 student visa holders may work on campus up to 20 hours per week during the academic year. However, work opportunities are very limited and should not be assumed or factored into your budget. Off-campus employment is not permitted for F-1 visa holders. Volunteer activities are permitted.

Do I qualify for the U.S. government’s federal financial aid if I am an international student?
No. F-1 students must submit documentation proving that they have the financial support to pay their tuition and do not qualify for the federal financial aid program.

Are any immunizations required? If so, what are they?
Yes, immunizations are required to study at UMass Boston. You can learn which ones @ https://www.umb.edu/healthservices/screeningclinics/immunizations. You should plan to update yours and/or bring documentation, or be prepared to obtain them as soon as you arrive in Boston. You can obtain them at the UMB Health Clinic, but unless you have adequate insurance or UMB Student coverage, you will be responsible for payment.
