The Anthony Chan Student Award was established through a contribution by Anthony Chan to recognize the achievements of exceptional undergraduate students engaged in Asian American Studies and involved with Asian American communities. The award recipient will be honored at the annual Asian American Studies Program Graduation Celebration and will receive a $650 prize.

Who is eligible:
Any enrolled UMass Boston undergraduate student who has:
• taken at least one course in Asian American Studies OR has completed research on Asian American issues and shown strong academic performance in this area; AND
• demonstrated active involvement in Asian American communities (including but not limited to internships, volunteer work, employment, activism, and community organizing).

How to apply:
Students may be self-nominated or nominated by a UMB faculty or staff member.
Please provide the following information:
Name: ___________________________ Student ID #: ___________________________
Address: ________________________________________________________________
Email address: ___________________________ Phone Number: __________________________

I. Essay
Attach an essay of up to 500 words that describes your involvement in an Asian American community and how your coursework and/or research in Asian American Studies has influenced your thinking and actions.

II. Letters of Recommendation
Please provide two letters of recommendation from the following sources:
1) Someone who is familiar with your involvement in an Asian American community (preferably from someone who has supervised you); and
2) A UMass Boston faculty member whose Asian American Studies course you took or who supervised your research on Asian American issues.

Completed applications are due on May 16, 2016, by 5 pm and may be submitted by email to asianaminst@umb.edu or delivered to the Institute for Asian American Studies, Healey Library, 10th floor.

For more information, please contact:
Institute for Asian American Studies
University of Massachusetts Boston
100 Morrissey Blvd., Boston, MA 02125
617.287.5650
asianaminst@umb.edu