THE HERBERT LIPKE FELLOWSHIP

The Herbert Lipke Fellowship is funded by the earnings of the Herbert Lipke Endowment fund, which will fund the Fellowship for one or two financially deserving full-time undergraduate student(s) in any given academic year. It aims to reduce the general indebtedness of (a) UMass Boston student(s) by reducing his/her dependence on loans while providing them with a means of enhancing their knowledge and work experience. It will provide support for student(s) engaged in research tied to or associated with the University’s Biology Department. The Fellowship recipient(s) shall carry the title of “The Herbert Lipke Fellow”.
