Distinguish Yourself
Solve real environmental problems
Gain critical skills and knowledge
Earn 16 credits towards your degree

Immerse Yourself
Move beyond the classroom
Develop your leadership skills
Experience a residential semester
Expand your horizons

Advantages
CUSTOMIZED CURRICULUM focused on ecology, environmental sciences, and Nantucket history and culture.
HANDS-ON RESEARCH EXPERIENCE
Linked research and coursework, training in field and lab techniques, cutting-edge training in new environmental fields such as Biomimicry.

Full Semester of Credit
Earn 16 credits taking 5 courses on-island and field study experience.
All undergraduate students are eligible although the curriculum is designed for EEOS and BIOL majors.

Program Fee
$6.950/semester includes tuition, fees, and housing on Nantucket.

Application & Deadline
Students are accepted upon approval of the program director.
Applications are due October 15, 2012.
Apply online at: surveymonkey.com/s/NS13