Congratulations on taking your first step towards a life-changing experience abroad. To get started there are many resources you can look into to find the perfect program for you. Our website has a ton of information about the process, scholarships, health, safety, and programs. Go to https://www.umb.edu/academics/global/studyabroad/getting_started to see all the information there!

Diversity & Inclusion

The Office of Global Programs is committed to helping all UMass Boston students study abroad. We believe all students should have the opportunity to study abroad regardless of their background. Every student faces challenges when planning a trip and living abroad. Students may find that a number of factors influence their experience, including nationality, race and ethnicity, disability, religion, gender, sexual orientation, and others.

We have compiled resources that can be used to help support your study abroad goals, and are here to help make those goals a reality. Letting us know about your specific concerns studying abroad will only help your experience while abroad. We will do whatever we can to ensure that you have a happy, safe, and rewarding time living abroad. You can find information on our website on:

- Disability Support and Study Abroad
- Gender and Study Abroad
- LGBTIQ+ and Study Abroad
- Non-Traditional Students and Study Abroad

Study Abroad Blog: Hear Stories from UMB Students Abroad!

We have student bloggers every semester from UMass Boston who studied abroad. To hear from them, visit our blog site:
https://www.umb.edu/academics/global/studyabroad/getting_started/studentstories

Learn about the program options and what that means for your funding.

- Exchange Programs: For Reciprocal Exchange Programs, UMass Boston exchange students pay their tuition and curriculum fee to UMass Boston, not to the host university. Mandatory and other student fees are paid to the host institution. The host institution will assist the student in locating housing and the cost is the student’s responsibility. If you are currently receiving the Chancellor’s Scholarship or are studying under the GI Bill and want to receive that funding for your study abroad term, you must go on a semester/ year-long exchange program only.

- UMass System Programs: The University of Massachusetts campuses at Boston, Dartmouth, and Amherst share a number overseas programs in Germany which allows students from any UMass campus to participate in study abroad and international exchange through one of these UMass campuses.

- Provider Programs: Specific third-party study abroad companies/organizations (providers) that UMass Boston partners with to offer alternatives to the Reciprocal Exchange Programs. These programs are highly recommended and have maintained reliable services in partnership with UMass Boston’s Office of Study Abroad & International Exchange for a number of years. Affiliated Provider Programs offer a reduced fee between $200 and $600 per student depending on a provider and the duration of the program.

- Direct Enroll Programs: Students must have a 3.0 GPA; study overseas as an international/visiting student and transfer credits with the approval of UMass Boston. Please see the study abroad office if you have an outside program you are interested in before applying. You will need approval by the Office of Global Programs in order to apply.
1. Approaching the conversation
   a. Think about the right time to bring up your idea to study abroad. The week of Thanksgiving when your parents are super busy planning your family dinner, cleaning the house, cooking, etc. is not the most ideal to casually bring up your going away for 5 months. Think about a good time, when your parents are relaxed or in a good mood. You can cook them a meal from the place you want to go and casually bring it up over dinner. You know them the best! Think about your approach.

2. Keep Calm and Optimistic
   a. Have a discussion, not an argument regarding your desire to study abroad. Listen to them, let them know you understand their concerns, and make it a two way conversation. Don’t expect them to immediately jump on board with a decision that would take you away from them 1,000 miles away that is also likely to be costly for them. They may want to think it over, talk about it without you there, or need time. Give them time and space, and show your maturity in this decision.

3. Be Flexible
   a. Maybe a year in China is too much for your parents to consider. How about somewhere closer to home for 1 semester instead of 2? Sometimes it is best to compromise rather than lead to a stalemate that may ultimately stop you from going abroad at all. They may be holding the funding you need to make it happen. Maybe they say okay you can go but only for a summer. They are essentially saying yes to you studying abroad so you have made a first step! Have a discussion about your goals and motivations for where/how long you want to go. Be willing to compromise and they could potentially reconsider if you show your maturity and ability to listen. You can show them specific details of what you are thinking to show you are prepared and serious about it.
4. Seek help from us!

a. Maybe your parents need time to think about it and you are ready to give them that time. You can maybe email them a few things in the meantime to help them in their own research and prove you are serious about it. We have a resource page on our website for this: https://www.umb.edu/academics/global/studyabroad/beforeyougo/parents

b. The next page shows Frequently Asked Questions about studying abroad.

c. Questions parents often ask: Is it safe? Answer: UMass Boston only allows students to go on programs that have been determined safe by the US Department of State. We do not send students to countries in which have been deemed a higher risk for students to be. There is automatic international health insurance offered to every student at no cost to the study abroad student for the full duration of the program as well. Our provider programs offer 24/7 on site resident directors who are there in the location with students as further support. See the Health and Safety section of our website for more.

d. Other questions often asked: How do we pay for it? Answer: It is a common misconception that all study abroad opportunities are beyond many students’ budgets. There are many options that cost the same or even less than studying on campus. Reciprocal exchange programs allow for UMass Boston students to pay their regular tuition as any other semester to UMass Boston for their study abroad semester. Financial aid can be used on study abroad programs as well, and sometimes an increase in aid is possible if applicable for the term the study abroad is occurring. There are dozens of scholarships available to apply for as well to help with the associated costs of study abroad. CIEE is one provider which offers flight vouchers for students receiving pell grants. With proper planning, we can help a student find a program that fits into their budget. More information on financing can be found here. Also check out University of Minnesota’s creative ways to finance study abroad.

e. Is it going to help in your studies? You can assure your parents the course work you do abroad will count towards your graduation requirements, and for the majority of students does not delay graduation. With proper planning all courses taken abroad will be approved before departure for transfer into the student’s degree. Studying abroad greatly enhances a student’s resume in a competitive global economy that is looking for graduates who have cross-cultural experience and a proven ability to adapt. You can also seek language skills and improve drastically in obtaining a second or third language. Additionally, you can earn extra credits over summer or winter break that you would not have taken in a regular semester, giving you the ability to advance faster towards your degree or adding a minor/second major.
FAQs About Study Abroad

Q. Why study abroad?
A. There are many benefits to studying abroad. Student returnees state they gained life-changing experiences and life-enhancing skills while studying abroad; below are additional examples:
   • Earn academic credit while abroad
   • Enhance your resume
   • Immerse yourself in another culture
   • Improve your foreign language skills
   • Make friends from around the world
   • See the world and have fun!

Q. When can I study abroad?
A. Any time after having successfully completed one full semester at UMass Boston (not recommended for freshmen).

Q. What are eligibility requirements?
• GPA 2.75 or higher from UMass Boston for exchange, 2.5 for provider/direct
• Good disciplinary standing
• Having completed one full semester at UMass Boston at the time of application
• Current UMass Boston student

Q. Where can I study abroad? What are the programs available?
A. Almost anywhere in the world.
   • Consider 4 Cs: curriculum, cost, climate, and when choosing among programs.
   • Learn about the program options here. Be sure you learn what the differences are among:
     o Exchange
     o Provider-led
     o Direct Enroll
     o UMass System Programs
   • These options have different financial and organizational requirements.

Q. How long can I study abroad?
A. Almost as long as you like, as long as you fulfill the residence requirements at UMass Boston.
   • One semester, multiple semesters, Academic year, Summer, winter
Q. How many credits will I get while studying abroad?
A. It depends how many courses you take abroad.
  • Semester - 12 credits, summer - 6 credits, winter - 3 credits.
  • You need to get C- or above to receive the credit.
  • The grades from abroad do not affect student’s GPA here.

Q. Can I take courses in my major?
A. Yes, you can take courses in your major and/or minor; electives are the easiest to transfer.
  • Consult your academic advisor and get approval for transfer of credits before your departure.

Q. Can I study abroad without knowing a foreign language?
A. Yes, since many of the programs abroad offer courses taught in English.
  • Browse the course offerings of various programs abroad by language of instruction (English)

Q. Can I afford to study abroad?
A. You can’t afford not to study abroad! Studying abroad, however, costs more than a regular semester at UMass Boston for in-state students.
  • Choose among more affordable programs, e.g., Reciprocal Exchange Programs, you pay UMass Boston tuition
  • Compare programs costs using budget planning worksheet
  • Start early and seek multiple funding resources.

Q. Can I get financial aid to study abroad?
A. In most cases, yes.
  • FAFSA and Pell Grant “travel”
  • Certain scholarships transfer, e.g., Chancellor’s and the Foster Furcolo Scholarship for Reciprocal Exchange Programs
  • Apply on time for scholarships to study abroad
  • Download our Study Abroad Financial Aid Guide

Q. How can I apply to study abroad?
A. By exploring this website.
  • We created a checklist for the study abroad planning & approval process (download here).
  • Visit and contact Study Abroad Office.

Q: Do I need a Student Visa to study abroad?
A: It depends. Some countries require a visa for the duration of your stay, others do not.
  • Explore the NAFSA website to find out if your host nation requires a visa
Deciding on a Program Tips: Academics

1. See advisor: Before deciding on any program, check with your academic advisor on which courses you should be looking to take to stay on track for graduation. You can get a good idea of which classes you should be looking to take abroad from this conversation.

2. Your Degree Audit: You can also look yourself at your degree audit to see which courses you need left for your degree. It is located in your Wiser account under “My Academics” ➔ “Academic Requirements” ➔ “Boston Degree Audit”.

3. Once you have an idea of which courses you need and a program in mind, you can fill out a prior approval form for transfer credits to get the courses you are interested in pre-approved for transfer to UMass Boston. For instructions, see the prior approval section of this guide on filling out the form.

Deciding on a Program Tips: Financing

1. As shown above in the program types, the different options have different financial implications. You should first see what kind of financial aid you are getting, and the tuition you are paying. To see what you are paying for school and the financial aid you receive, go to Wiser ➔ “Financial Aid Center” ➔ “View Current Financial Aid”.

2. If you are paying out-of-state, regional, or international tuition, a provider program is your best choice for a semester program, as their pricing is generally $14,000 or lower for all countries, including housing, tuition, and excursions. This can often even save you $ by going abroad on these programs.

3. If you are paying in-state tuition AND receive merit based scholarships at UMB, you should look at reciprocal exchanges for your semester in which those scholarships can be applied. Non-merit based scholarships can be used on any program. If you are receiving funding under the GI Bill/ VA, you will want to go on reciprocal exchanges only to use that funding.

4. If you do not fall under any of these circumstances, a provider, direct, or reciprocal program can be the best for you financially depending on what term you are interested in and where you want to study. Spain has really affordable programs through providers for example that end up being more cost friendly than our exchanges there. It is best to seek our office for help in deciding which program works for you financially.

Ready to Search Programs?

Begin your search for programs on our website:

Searching Programs Help

This is how the home page looks for the UMB study abroad portal. If you already know which program you will be applying to, click the “Login/ Resume Application/ Register” button on the top right of the page shown above. You can then log in with your UMass Boston email and password to begin your application.

To begin your search for a program, hover your mouse over the (circled in red above) “Campus Highlighted Programs” and click “UMass Boston Programs”.

This will bring you to a list of featured programs our office offers to study abroad. Start here with this list for great programs we have sent students on in the past that we recommend. There are semester, winter, and summer programs listed. Again be sure to check what each program means for your funding! (see above: UMass Boston Exchange, Provider, Direct Enroll).
To find more information about the programs listed, simply click on any on the list you find (see circled in red for where to click):

Once you click on a program it will take you to the brochure page. (See below for this example AIFS Study Abroad in Berlin Humboldt: Summer).

This page includes the UMass Boston campus deadline (different from the direct program application deadline), application requirements, and home page link. If you already know you want to go on this program, click “Apply Now” in the top right (circled in Blue). You will then choose a term open for applications and will be prompted with a checklist.

This checklist will need to be completed by the deadline stated on the application to UMass Boston. This deadline is different from the program specific deadline. To find more information about the program including the program deadline, click the Homepage Link “Click to visit” (circled in red) below:
Once you click the homepage button, it will take you to the program website. You will always need to submit two applications to study abroad through UMass Boston. One will be submitted in the UMass Boston study abroad portal, above. The other must be submitted through the program website directly. (See p. for instructions on applying).

On the homepage of the program you can find information on, application deadlines, cost, scholarship information, courses available, accommodation, excursions included, dates, etc. The program page will look something like this (see below for picture). You can click on any of the links to find more information. For example, if you click on “Courses” (circled in red below) it will take you to a list of options:
You can expand on each course option to view a description. You should check the course options for every program you are interested in before you make a decision on that program. Feel free to consult your academic advisor on a program you are interested in to see if it is a good fit for you academically.
The UMass Boston study abroad portal also has an advanced search option. From the “UMass Boston Programs” (under “Campus Highlighted Programs”), you can click “Search Programs”. It is also available at this direct link: https://studyabroad.umasscs.net/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.AdvancedSearch

This is how the page would look. You can search directly by program name, or search by City, Country, Region, Term, Institution name, Area of Study, Program Type, or cost level. Pick any of the criteria you are looking for, and then click “Search” on the bottom of the page (circled in red):

A whole list of programs with your criteria will come up for you to browse the same way shown above.
Ready to Apply?

Once you click “Apply Now” on the program you selected in the UMass Boston Study Abroad Portal, you will be prompted to log in. Click “I have a Campus username and password”, and then log in with your university email (not including the @umb.edu) and email password. Also put the campus as Boston. Log in to create an application under the term you would like to go. Once you do this, an application will be started for you. It will bring you to a page that looks like this:

This is the “Pre-Decision” phase of the application. You will need to complete all of the Questionnaires and Signature Documents in this initial application. These documents will be used to determine your eligibility to study abroad at UMass Boston. Complete the above checklist by clicking on each item under “Questionnaire(s)” and “Signature Documents”. For example, when you click on “UMass Disciplinary Clearance Form” (circled in red above), this screen will open:

You will fill out the information on this page, then click “Submit” (circled in red) on the bottom. This will check off this item as “Received” on your checklist. (see below for picture).
Once we review your “Pre-decision” application and your application is approved, your application will be marked “Eligible for Study Abroad”. You will receive an email from the system, titled “Application Activity” (see below for example email):

Application Activity: UMass Boston/Dartmouth/Lowell UMass Boston, UMass Dartmouth, UMass Lowell Education Abroad Programs Website

This message was generated automatically
Once you receive this email, follow the link in the email to log into your account again. When you log in, under the application you submitted it will say “DECISION REACHED: Please click application link to view decision letter.” See below for picture example:

When you click on the application link (circled in red above), you will be shown a decision letter:

You will need to click “Continue” (circled in red above), and then it will bring you to the “Post-Decision” application checklist (along with your initial pre-decision checklist). The page will look like this shown below. You will need to click “Commit” (circled in red below), to commit to the program. Please read the decision letter carefully.
You will need to complete ALL of these check box items by the time of your departure on your study abroad program. This will complete the mandatory paperwork needed by UMass Boston. (Before completing this checklist, be sure you have received your acceptance letter from the program/university abroad.)

See the next pages for directions on the rest of the process to study abroad.
Next Steps: After you “Commit”

After you have “committed” to the program in the portal, it is time to apply to the program you chose directly. This is the second application that is needed to study abroad.

If you are going on an UMass Boston Reciprocal Exchange Program, you will need to be nominated to the university abroad by our office first before you can apply. If you are going on a Provider Program (such as AIFS), or Direct Enrollment Program, go directly to that programs homepage website in order to submit the second application. Please be sure you have checked the specific deadline of the program to apply on time! (shown on university/ program website) It is your responsibility to submit your application by the specified deadline of your program.

For example, if you are applying to “AIFS Study Abroad in Berlin Humboldt: Summer”, as shown in the example above, you will go directly to their website and click “Apply Now” (circled in red). See below for the example.

This will prompt you to register to apply for the program. Go through the entire application and be sure to check your emails regularly! This application is vital. AIFS (or any other provider), as well as any exchange university, will be the ones accepting you into the program. You will submit your application to them and wait for a decision. They will send you your acceptance letter and other very important information about the program. Be sure you submit your application on time and are responding to any emails you receive.

Once you receive your acceptance letter, it is time to fill out the remaining application check list in the UMass Boston system, as well as fill out the post-acceptance paperwork.
Post-Acceptance Paperwork

Congratulations on receiving your acceptance letter from your program/university abroad! It is now time to complete all the necessary steps to study abroad through UMass Boston.

VISA

VERY IMPORTANT: If you need a visa to study in the country you intend to go, you need to start this process ASAP/IMMEDIATELY after receiving your acceptance. This can take weeks/months to complete, so do not wait!!! It is YOUR responsibility to apply for a visa and to be sure you have the proper immigration paperwork to study abroad.

You should go to the consulate website of the country you are going to in order to determine if you need a visa, as well as the steps to apply. You can also search if you need a visa here: https://abriggs.com/visas

For example, if you are applying to study abroad in the UK, go to the British Consulate General of Boston website (you can google the country you are going to consulate to find the link): https://www.gov.uk/world/organisations/british-consulate-general-boston. Then go to “Visa” and click “Check if you need a visa”. You will fill in your information to see if you need a visa to study there.

Almost ALL countries in which you are studying there over 3 months require a student visa. Some countries require a visa for any stay. You need to be sure you check ASAP after getting accepted to see if you will need one. This information is on the consulate website of the country in which you are going. Some applications are required to be submitted in person, while others are on line. Many require an appointment to be made.

Those going to Spain and Italy: If you are going to Spain or Italy to study for over 3 months, you will need a student visa (like most of Europe). Appointments at the consulates in Boston are VERY hard to get. You need to check ASAP for an appointment at the consulate to submit your visa. Check almost daily for an appointment. You may need to call, email, and even go in person to see about getting an appointment. Many students have found going in person to have better outcomes on getting an appointment. Do not give up, just keep trying. The only thing our office can do to help is send an email/phone call to the consulate. It is really on you to be sure you get that appointment. Make sure you show up to your scheduled time with ALL documents needed for the visa. If you are going to study abroad with a provider, there may be a group visa option. We strongly recommend this option if possible.

To find out if you need a visa and find the link to apply, go to: https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/international-travel/International-Travel-Country-Information-Pages.html and search the country you are traveling to. Then go to “Entry, Exit, and Visa Requirements” on the country information page.

The Office of Global Programs/Study Abroad can issue the following for your visa application:

- A letter stating you are a full-time student at UMass Boston with travel dates
- A letter stating you are covered by UMass Boston international insurance for your full program with policy number and travel dates
- A certification of insurance for your trip

All other documents will need to be filled out and submitted by you. For the bank statement/proof of funds, you can go to your bank to get a notarized bank statement or have your parents/guardians do the same with a supporting letter that they will be supporting you on your trip.

You can get passport photos at CVS/Walgreens as well as AAA. Enrollment verifications and official transcripts can be received in the One Stop. Financial Aid verifications can be done by Nicole.Brennan@umb.edu. You may need to go to your primary care doctor to fill out a health assessment, especially for countries in Asia. Be sure you have all the necessary paperwork before submitting your visa application.

Call the consulate directly for questions during their business hours.
Post-Acceptance Checklist:

Once you have figured out and applied for the visa, please complete all the necessary documents/processes in the post-acceptance stage. This includes:

1. Finishing your online application in the UMass Boston Portal with all check list items completed.
2. Completing any remaining materials needed for your program/university abroad, including securing your housing and registering for courses. Check your email regularly for correspondence from your program.
3. Filling out Financial Aid paperwork and submitting to Nicole.Brennan@umb.edu
4. Attending a Mandatory Pre-Departure Orientation (dates/times to be sent to your email by studyabroad@umb.edu)
5. Paying the Mandatory $100 study abroad fee (or program fee if short-term exchange program) to the Office of Global Programs by check or money order only.
6. Making sure you have no holds on your wiser in order for study abroad registration of credits.

UMass Boston Portal: Post-Acceptance:

In the UMass Boston portal after you have hit “commit”, there will be new check boxes that appear in your application. You will need to fill out these check boxes by the time you leave for your program:

- Departure and Return Travel Questionnaire
  - Fill this out once you have your flights booked for your program. For flight booking advice, see the section on flights in this guide.
- Health Insurance Verification
  - This is asking for your private health insurance information. You will also be covered by UMass Boston insurance at no charge to you.
- Medical Self-Assessment
- Study Abroad Acceptance Confirmation
  - Please just upload a copy of your acceptance letter/email.
- STEP Enrollment: US Citizens and nationals only
  - This can be done by you directly. There will also be time set aside at the pre-departure orientation in order for you to enroll if you have not already.
- Boston Prior Approval For Study Abroad Credit
  - See Prior approval form for transfer credits instructions in this guide.
- High Risk Destinations
  - Print this document and sign, then bring it to the Office of Global Programs to drop it off.
• Program Agreement Release Form
  o Print this document and sign, then bring it to the Office of Global Programs to drop it off.

• UMass Boston Travel Registration
  o You can wait to do this until the pre-departure orientation. We will have time set aside to assist with this registration. Our office will mark this completed after the pre-departure orientation.

• Enrollment Verification: For financial aid students only o This form you will need to have signed AFTER you arrive on your program abroad. Financial aid needs proof you have arrived on your program and are registered for courses. See the financial aid section for more information.

Prior Approval Form for Transfer Credits

A prior approval form for transfer credits is needed in order to have your credits from abroad transfer to UMass Boston. Every course you take abroad MUST be approved on this form in order to transfer.

Follow these steps to complete the prior approval form (form available below):

1. Browse course offerings from the university/provider. For semester programs choose a minimum of 12 US credits (recommended to choose 2-3 back-up courses) and fill out the form with the name of the courses. For summer and winter choose a few courses to have approved as back-ups options as well.
2. Print out/ download course description/syllabus for each course you wish to take.
3. Obtain a Signature from the Transfer Credit Evaluator in the Undergraduate Admissions Office, Campus Center UL (Miguel Alvarez; Miguel.alvarez@umb.edu) You will need course descriptions to obtain the signature. You must submit the form to him FIRST, to evaluate the credits for the course.
4. Obtain a signature from the Department Chair of YOUR major at UMB, if you are taking courses in your major and Miguel directs you to seek approval from your department.
5. Obtain a signature from the Study Abroad Coordinator.
6. Submit a copy of your Prior Approval with all signatures to: Undergraduate Admissions, Study Abroad Office, Financial Aid Office, and your Academic Department.

All the instructions on filling out this form are available on the top of the form itself. If you go abroad and decide to switch to a course not approved on a form, simply submit a second form via email from abroad with the course description.
REQUEST FOR PRIOR APPROVAL OF TRANSFER CREDIT FOR STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

PLEASE READ BEFORE FILLING OUT THIS FORM

To facilitate the transfer of credits, students participating in exchange or study abroad programs MUST complete this form. The purpose of this form is to request credits for courses taken abroad as a part of a recognized and approved international exchange or study abroad program. Please give several weeks before your program to complete this form. If you are receiving financial aid, this form MUST be submitted in order for financial aid to be released. F-1 international students are eligible to study abroad in countries outside of their home country only and must obtain a valid travel signature.

For detailed instructions on this form, please go to: https://www.umb.edu/academics/global/studyabroad/requirements

STEP 1: Browse the course offerings from the study abroad program provider or university abroad.

STEP 2: Select courses you would like to take for your university study abroad term. We recommend selecting a few extra in case of a change in your selection upon arrival. Download ALL the course descriptions/syllabi for the courses you have selected as a PDF/word doc.

STEP 3: Fill out the top section (please type) of the form with your information. Then fill out sections 1-3 (white). Type the name of each course you selected under “Study Abroad Course Title”, with the corresponding Course # and Host Credit Hours as stated on each syllabus.

STEP 4: Send this form AND attached course descriptions/syllabi to Undergraduate Admissions (Campus Center U1), Miguel Alvarez by email Miguel.Alvarez@umb.edu. You MUST copy (cc) studyclearance@umb.edu. For major courses, after Miguel signs, he will direct you to your department to have major courses evaluated. Please submit to Miguel Alvarez FIRST.

STEP 5: Miguel will review the form, fill out sections 4-6 (grey) and email it back to you signed by him. Send the form to our office by email: studyabroad@umb.edu. Our office will then need to sign the form and will scan it back to you. If you are using financial aid, this form NEEDS to be sent (with signatures) to Nicole Brennan: Nicole.Brennan@umb.edu.

RETURN SIGNED COPIES TO: UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSIONS, OFFICE OF GLOBAL PROGRAMS, AND FINANCIAL AID (IF NEEDED)
Post-Acceptance: Financial Aid

If you need to apply for financial aid, contact financial aid directly for steps. Financial Aid (Nicole.Brennan@umb.edu) requires the following be submitted directly to Nicole Brennan in financial aid in order to process your financial aid award:

1. Acceptance Letter (forward acceptance email or letter to Nicole.Brennan@umb.edu)
2. Prior Approval For Transfer Credits - must be signed and completed
3. Consortium Agreement
4. Enrollment Verification

Consortium Agreement- Only for Financial Aid Recipients

The consortium agreement is available here: https://www.umb.edu/editor_uploads/images/oita/Consortium_Agreement_-_Only_if_Using_Financial_Aid.pdf

Also see below for a copy of the form.

To fill out the form, just fill in Section II including the courses you plan to take abroad. You will need to sign at the bottom of page 1.

For the second page, Section III, you will need to have this completed by your university/program directly. Simply send the form with the first page filled out and signed by you via email to your university (for direct enrollment), or program (for providers). Let them know you are receiving financial aid and need section III filled out by them. They will fill it out with the budget and send it back to you signed. You can then submit the form directly to Nicole.Brennan@umb.edu.

Please note for UMass Boston Reciprocal Exchange Programs: If you are going on a reciprocal exchange program (tuition paid to UMass Boston like a regular semester), you will not need to send the consortium agreement form to the university abroad. Our office has budget sheets we use for exchange programs. Just send us the front page filled out by you and we will send you the budget back. We will need your travel dates in order to submit the form to Nicole.Brennan@umb.edu.

UMass Boston Health Insurance

UMass Boston requires that all students maintain some form of primary medical insurance coverage valid in both the U.S. and host country before, during and after the education abroad period.

The University of Massachusetts treasurer's office provides international travel insurance coverage and services to the university's students when participating in university sponsored and approved international study abroad programs. This coverage is at no charge to the student, and is regardless of the student being enrolled in UMass Boston insurance for their regular studies. International travel coverage is intended to provide the first line of service and protection to the university's travelers. Here is the information regarding the insurance ALL UMass Boston students are covered under while studying abroad on an approved program:

Gallagher Global Assistance

Organization: University of Massachusetts
Policy Number: ADDN10892508
Assistance Provider: Gallagher Global Assistance

All students will be provided with an insurance card including this information. Students can use that ID card to log into the insurance website, which will include a lot of local-based intelligence information as well as health related information in the country the student is traveling.

Website: www.gallaghrerglobalassistance.com
Username: GallagherGlobalAssistance@ajg.com
Password: ajgco

For medical referrals, evacuation, repatriation, or other services, please call:
Gallagher Global Travel Assistance Program
1-866-693-6873 (Toll-Free)
1-312-935-9242 (Direct Dial)
GallagherGlobalAssistance@ajg.com

We recommend students pay out of pocket if they visit a doctor abroad. They can save the receipt from the doctor and submit the receipt to GallagherGlobalAssistance@ajg.com to be reimbursed. It generally takes around 2 weeks to process reimbursement. Please cc studyabroad@umb.edu on any reimbursement requests or questions.

Prior to departure, students, and families should still contact their personal health insurance company to make certain they understand what additional coverage they may have in place, or may want to put in place, while traveling abroad. Any additional coverage purchased would be at the traveler's own expense.
Your Health and Safety Abroad

Preparation and information are key to a healthy and safe stay abroad; though unpredictable events occur throughout the world. It is important to keep track of individual health and safety issues, and attend to current conditions while abroad—weather, worldwide health trends, location-specific, and political factors—awareness of these matters will help to create a successful experience abroad.

All students should speak with their primary care doctor before studying abroad. Your doctor can help you create a health plan for your trip, including getting your prescription medicine filled for the duration of your trip. They can also suggest any vaccinations you should get before leaving on the program you are going to.

Be Prepared! One of the best defenses for your health & safety is common sense:

- Know how you are getting to where you need to be from the airport- research taxi companies to take in your host country!
- Check directions and your route to avoid getting lost- if you do get lost, walk with purpose and stay calm as to not arouse suspicion. Look for an authority figure first for directions, if that does not work look for a store/hotel to ask for directions.
- Protect your valuables: be wary of strangers, leave your passport in a safe place when possible and only carry a copy, and have your valuables in zipped pockets
- Be smart with your money and stick to your budget
- Keep your family and friends aware of your whereabouts
- Maintain a low profile in appearance/mannerisms
- Do not walk alone at night
- Don’t accept food or drink from strangers
- Know your neighborhood and neighborhoods you should avoid
- Pay attention to the news
- Look out for scams and be aware of your surroundings.

UMass Boston Health Services offers a Travelwell Clinic which can help prepare you to study abroad. This is a service for students, faculty, and staff at UMass Boston which provides comprehensive pre-travel consultation to maximize your health during travel outside the US.

The US State Department offers International Travel Information and Safety information specific to the country you are traveling to. https://travel.state.gov/content/travel.html You can also register your travel through the STEP program which will notify the state department of your whereabouts while abroad in case of emergencies.

Study Abroad Fee

 Study Abroad Advising & Application Fee $100

All students participating on Reciprocal Exchange, Affiliate, and Alternate Study Abroad Provider Programs or directly enrolling are required to pay a $100 fee. This fee, along with UMass Boston required forms and documents will assure the following: maintenance of fulltime UMass student status while on approved program abroad; WISER remains active; Financial aid can be applied to overseas program; pre-approval of courses toward the UMass degree program; transcript processing; credits will be interpreted and applied to the UMass transcript upon return. In addition, students are provided with ongoing advising throughout the process. Pre-departure orientations are offered the semester before studying abroad. All UMass Boston students are also covered by UMass International Travel & Emergency Insurance while participating on an approved, overseas program. This fee is NON-REFUNDABLE.

For Hessen ISU and IWU short-term programs, the $100 fee is INCLUDED in the overall program fee for the program ($1,200 for summer, $800 for winter).

Pre-Departure Orientation

You are required to attend the UMass Boston Pre-Departure Orientation as a student studying abroad. You will not be eligible to study abroad without attending a session. Dates are announced approximately 2 months before the end of the semester. They generally occur the week before finals at UMass Boston, the semester before you would be studying abroad. For example, students studying abroad in Summer or Fall 2020 must attend a session on May 14 or 15, 2020. The sessions include presentations by the Dean of Students, Health Services, Financial Aid, as well as student alumni. It includes health, safety, academics, social life, adjustment and culture shock, travel registration, and more.

Reminders

1. You must submit a prior approval form completed in order to transfer credits.
2. Financial aid questions and concerns must go to Nicole.brennan@umb.edu.
3. If you are receiving financial aid for a semester abroad, you MUST take 12 US credits or more to receive full-time financial aid.
4. You must submit your enrollment confirmation, signed upon arrival to your program abroad, in order to release your financial aid.
5. If you have a study abroad hold in your Wiser, that was placed by Financial aid, NOT by Global Programs.
6. You cannot take courses Pass/Fail for credits.
7. You must earn a C- or above to transfer credits to UMass Boston.
8. It is your responsibility to obtain a visa if you need one.
9. You must pay the study abroad fee to be approved and registered for study abroad.
1. All courses must be graded (NO PASS/FAIL) in order to transfer to UMass Boston
2. You MUST receive a C- or higher in each course in order to transfer that course.
3. Your grades/GPA from abroad will not affect your GPA at UMass Boston. That being said, they will show up on your transcript (TA-, TB, TC) for example. You will also have an official transcript from that university abroad, which will be required to submit to any grad school applications and other applications in the future.
4. Courses from abroad that were approved on a prior approval form will be transferred once the official transcript is received by the Office of Global Programs.
5. You should check with your department/advisor to be sure you will stay on track to graduate. They can also help you decide which courses will work for your degree progress.
6. Internship credit can only be accepted with approval of your department abroad. You need to check with your department to see if your major accepts internship credit, and be approved for transfer credit for an internship abroad.
7. If you are seeking credit for a diversity course at UMass Boston, it will need to transfer exactly as a course at UMass Boston that has the diversity approval. To see the list of courses, go here: https://www.umb.edu/course_catalog/search Go to Diversity Area on the bottom of the page and filter to which you are looking for. The prior approval form will need to have an exact course on this list approved for transfer in order to receive a course towards the diversity requirement.
8. General education courses and general electives can be signed directly by Miguel Alvarez in admissions. Miguel.Alvarez@umb.edu.
9. It is your responsibility to ensure our office receives your transcript from abroad.
10. Our office will scan the transcript and send it to you as well as Miguel Alvarez in admissions. He will evaluate the transcript with your prior approval form and place the credits into your Wiser account. Be sure your program has our office address to send the transcript after your program ends:
   - Office of Global Programs, Campus Center 2100, University of Massachusetts Boston, 100 William T Morrissey Blvd. Boston MA 02124-3393
Booking Flights

Start researching flights early so you can budget your money.

Check out www.studentuniverse.com or www.statravel.com for cheap, no-overhead flight prices just for students! STA Travel also offers a Book Now, Pay Later program for students to reserve seats with a deposit then pay the rest later: https://www.statravel.com/book-now-pay-later-special.htm

Other websites to search flights:

- Kayak: https://www.kayak.com/
- Skyscanner: https://www.skyscanner.com/
- Momondo: https://www.momondo.com/
- Wanderu is an app that searches train, buses, and flights to compare. https://www.wanderu.com/en-us/

Be sure you arrive to the airport 2-3 hours ahead of time to ensure you make it!

Money and Banking Abroad

1. First and foremost, call your bank and tell them where you are going and when you are leaving and coming back including your debit and/or credit cards. Also include any trips you think you will be going on in other surrounding countries (maybe not just the country you are studying in).
   a. It would be a major inconvenience to have your card blocked from abroad. Also, the 24-hour hotlines on the back of your card may not work.
2. If you already know how to budget, do what works best for you! However, here are some options:
   a. Apps: Cleo, skyscanner, goeuro, wechat, flickbus, NVV, DayFlow, Triposo, MetroMadrid, MyTaxi (Europe)
   b. Or use a pen and paper! Or excel sheet. This is your budget, so do what feels best for you.
3. Have a currency exchange app, such as mycurrencyconverter. Some banks charge fees for withdrawal of funds internationally. Check with your bank and if you do, take out money less frequently from ATMs, withdrawing enough cash for one week is a good idea to avoid multiple fees.
4. Keep an emergency fund for unfortunate circumstances!
   a. A suggested amount is about $100USD but whatever works for you is fine. You don’t want to be stuck without ANY money in a different country if something happens with your credit/debit card!
Cell Phones Abroad

Check with your phone company in the US. Many smartphones now have international capabilities, and your home service provider can unlock your phone for use in your country of study.

If not, look to see if your phone uses a SIM card → just about every network except for Verizon uses them. Good news! You can probably buy a new SIM card when you arrive and replace your existing card, allowing you to keep your old phone.

If you need a phone abroad, there are many stores that sell cheap phones. Go with the cheapest, you are probably only there for 1 semester at the most.

Next, you’ll need a network, REALLY look at the different aspects of each plan.

Don’t be afraid to buy your phone online BEFORE you head over. Stores always run out of phones during the first few weeks of class, so if you have a phone you’ll just need to work on getting a plan when you’re over there.

What apps to download for using your phone abroad:

For iPhone users check out: http://thestudyabroadblog.com/using-the-iphone-abroad/

- Skype — you can instant message, video chat, and call landlines all with one program, making it one of the most efficient means of communication while abroad
- Google Translate — You can type something in a foreign language (or have someone speak clearly into your microphone) for an immediate translation
- Whatsapp — when connected to wifi you can make calls/ send messages anywhere in the world!
- Dropbox — Saves files from your computer in an online account, which you can access from anywhere on your smartphone or a computer
- Viber — let’s you share our location, so your friends can find you. In addition, it’s a useful (and free) messaging platform for chatting and sending instant messages. It works over WiFi or 3G/4G
- Mint — keep an eye on your travel budget and track your expenses during your trip. It’s absolutely safe and secure
- Wi-Fi Finder — Free app that has an online and offline directory of over 500,000 different hotspot locations in 144 different countries
- ICE — The app keeps details about your medical conditions, your doctor’s primary contact details and insurance information that can be accessed even if your phone is locked
- FaceTime — Apple’s video calling software app, and is supported on any iOS device with a forward-facing camera and on any Mac equipped with a FaceTime Camera
- Cleo — It will analyze your spending on your bank account. The app with use data to create budgets and give you tools to help you save.
