Three Renowned Speakers

Richard Boone
- Program director of the Integrative Graduate Education and Research Traineeship (IGERT) Program at the National Science Foundation
- The Changing Landscape of Graduate Education: Alignments, Transitions, and Challenges
  - September 24

Stanley Johnson
- Ambassador for the United Nations Convention on Migratory Species and author of ten books on environmental issues
- Milestones: Forty Years of International Environmental Policy
  - October 29

Susan Avery
- President and director of the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution
- Our Changing Coastline
  - November 19

All seminars given in the Small Science Auditorium, Science Building, 1st Floor, from 2 to 3:30 p.m.

All seminars are sponsored and organized by the newly established UMass Boston Coasts and Communities IGERT program, which educates and trains PhD scholars from a variety of disciplines as environmental problem solvers, equipped with the analytical and methodological tools needed to confront some of the most pressing environmental challenges of our time. For more information, visit: www.umb.edu/igert.

Anyone requiring disability-related accommodations should visit www.ada.umb.edu.

UMass Boston Transdisciplinary Graduate Program
University of Massachusetts Boston