UMass Boston Mass. Memories Road Show

Are you a current student at UMass Boston? Do you work at UMass Boston? Are you an alum or former staff or faculty of UMass Boston or its predecessor colleges (Boston State College, State College at Boston, and State Teachers College)? Have you lived in Savin Hill, Columbia Point, or another Dorchester neighborhood? If you’ve answered yes to any of these questions, come to the Road Show, and spread the word to others!

WHEN:
Friday, May 2, 10 a.m.–3 p.m.
Saturday, May 3, 10 a.m.–3 p.m.

WHERE:
UMass Boston Campus Center, 1st Floor Terrace

HOW:
Bring up to three photographs (printed or digital) that tell your UMass Boston story. The Mass. Memories Road Show team will scan and upload your images, return originals to you, and help record your story.

WHY:
UMass Boston is celebrating its 50th anniversary, and we invite everyone with a connection to the university to participate. You can help us create a snapshot of our community!

VISIT OPENARCHIVES.UMB.EDU TO SEE HOW YOUR STORY WILL BE SHARED.

The Mass. Memories Road Show is produced by the University Archives & Special Collections Department at the Joseph P. Healey Library, UMass Boston, and is supported in part by the Patricia C. Flaherty ’81 Endowment Fund.

Anyone requiring disability-related or dietary accommodations should visit www.ada.umb.edu before April 18.
