PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION IN A TIME OF CHANGE: EMERGING CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS

Register today for the Northeast Conference on Public Administration 2012!

CONFERENCE THEME
This year’s conference focuses on the emerging and enduring challenges facing public administration during a time of tremendous change. Public administrators’ responses to these challenges are numerous and have enjoyed varied successes and failures. This conference will illuminate myriad issues and present innovative practices and approaches to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of public service organizations.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND
Join more than 250 academics, practitioners, and students in Boston to discuss these challenges and the academic and practical work currently in-progress focusing on planning, implementing, managing, and evaluating public sector programs.

CONFERENCE VENUE
Held at the beautiful ocean-front University of Massachusetts Boston, this year’s conference is co-sponsored by the UMass Boston’s McCormack Graduate School of Policy and Global Studies, Massachusetts Chapter of the American Society for Public Administration, and Suffolk University’s Institute for Public Service.

REGISTRATION
You may register online at: http://necopa.eventbrite.com until October 29th. After that date, attendees can register on site during the conference. If would like to register by mail, please email NECoPA@umb.edu for more information.
