Please refer to the above estimates when completing this form. In order for UMass Boston to provide you with visa sponsorship, you must submit evidence that you have funding available to meet these expenses. Be aware that financial requirements of the university, changing costs, state and legislative action, or other circumstances may require adjustments in tuition and fees. You will be required to show proof of financial support when applying for your student visa. Therefore, be sure to maintain a copy of financials for this purpose.

CHANGE OF STATUS AND TRANSFER STUDENTS

If you are currently living in the U.S., you must provide the following documents: copies of your visa and passport photo pages and I-94 card, and if you are a student, a copy of your I-20 or DS-2019. You must submit a Transfer Verification Form for Non-Immigrant Students signed by your P/DSO at the institution you are currently attending or have most recently attended. You may download this form by visiting our web site at www.umb.edu and clicking on the Graduate Admissions, Undergraduate Admissions, or International Student Office link. You must also provide your U.S. residential address (a post office box is not acceptable). Make sure that your name and your date of birth are correctly listed and spelled on both your application to UMass Boston as well as on the Declaration and Certification of Finance form. Your name must appear exactly as it appears on your passport.

For further visa information, visit our International Student and Scholar Services Office web site at: isss@umb.edu.

*Please note that the I-134, or any variation thereof, is not an acceptable proof of funding source.

Embassies and consulates are able to issue your student visa up to 120 days in advance of your start date for classes. Once you are accepted to the university and receive your I-20, apply for your visa as early as possible.
