INSTRUCTION

Library Instruction Program

Healey Library offers a variety of programs and services to help students engage in developing lifelong critical thinking and information-seeking skills. Schedule a session in your classroom, in the Center for Active Learning and Library Instruction, or online. Ask about flipped classrooms and other hybrid models.

Research Guides

Healey Library offers Research Guides for courses, subjects, and topics such as conducting literature reviews and citing sources. Ask about embedding Research Guides into Blackboard courses.

Open Educational Resources

UMass Boston and Healey Library are committed to making course materials accessible and affordable. We encourage the use of licensed library resources in courses, making course readings available to students at no additional cost. UMass Boston offers support for faculty who are interested in creating their own course packs or textbooks that can be licensed to the UMass Boston or global community.

University Archives and Special Collections

The Archives, located on the 5th floor of Healey Library, contains extensive, unique primary source materials and provides instruction and support in their use. In addition to the university’s history, the Archives collects in areas related to local history and the school’s urban mission. Archives staff are available for consultations, assignment support, and instruction sessions.

ACCESS LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Curbside Pickup and Returns

To request a book or DVD from library’s collection for curbside pickup, please sign into UMBrella directly, search for a title, open the item’s record, and click ‘REQUEST OPTIONS: Place Hold for Pickup’. pickle. Curbside pickup services are currently available by appointment Monday through Saturday at the ISC drop-off area. Curbside returns are available 24/7 via our outdoor book drop in the ISC drop-off area.

Lean Library

Download the Lean Library browser plugin to allow licensed Healey Library resources to pop up as you search the web. Web: umb.libguides.com/leanlibrary

LIBRARY RESOURCES & SERVICES

Course Reserves

We place print books, films, DVDs, and e-books on reserve for classes. Students, check with the Circulation Desk to see if your course materials are available. Ask your professors to place course content on reserve.
