

Applied Sociology MA

ACCELERATED MASTER'S PROGRAM (AMP) GUIDE

Complete the Applied Sociology BA and MA in as few as five years when you enroll in the Accelerated Master's Program at UMass Boston.

Recommended Undergraduate Coursework Once Accepted

Applied Sociology MA Accelerated Master's Program

Second semester junior year
SOCIO 607 and an elective

First semester senior year
SOCIO 700, SOCIO 604, SOCIO 650

Second semester senior year
SOCIO 607, SOCIO 651

Undergraduate Prerequisites
SOCIO 101, SOCIO 202, SOCIO 351,
SOCIO 201 (this can be taken while starting AMP)

Scan the QR code to learn more.

Explore the dynamic field of applied sociology and make a tangible impact on society. UMass Boston's applied sociology master's program is designed to help you understand the social forces that shape the world with practical training in research methods, statistics, and evaluation research.

Program Information

Modality: In person
Academic load: Full-time or part-time
Average number of semesters to complete degree: 3
Maximum graduate credits that may be taken as an undergraduate: 15

Program Intake and Deadlines

Fall semester: March 1 (prior to senior year)
Spring semester: October 1 (prior to senior year)

Approximate Cost Savings*

In-state cost savings range: $9,925–$12,407
Out-of-state cost savings range: $19,373–$24,217
Regional cost savings range: $17,369–$21,712

*These cost savings reflect 2024–25 tuition. Actual cost savings will depend on the number of graduate courses taken prior to completing your bachelor's degree.

Application Requirements

Minimum undergraduate GPA: 3.2
Undergraduate credit range needed to apply: 60–75
Recommendations: 3
Required materials: Writing sample
Supplemental writing prompt: Yes
Personal statement: Your statement of purpose is an opportunity to show the graduate admissions committee why you want to pursue a graduate degree and what your specific goals and interests are.
Writing sample: Please submit an academic writing sample from a sociology course or a related field.

No application fee required for Beacons!

Contact Information

Elizabeth Brown, Graduate Program Director
elizabeth.brown@umb.edu

Wheatley Hall, 4th Floor, Room 15
sociology.graduate@umb.edu