

Robert and Donna Manning
College of Nursing and Health Sciences

Aging Studies Major

The Aging Studies Program has 8 required courses and then 4 electives within the Aging Studies major.

Required Courses:

- GERON 150 Frontiers in Global Human Aging - NEW NAME: Introduction to Aging and the Life Course
- GERON 160 Global Aging and the Life Course - NEW NAME: International Perspectives on Population Aging
- GERON 250 Mental Health and Aging
- GERON 260 Health and Physical Aspects of Aging
- GERON 325 Applied Research in Aging
- GERON 342L Aging and Society
- GERON 401 Field Placement I
- GERON 440 Global Aging II

Elective Courses (must choose 4)

- GERON 170 – Sexuality and Aging
- GERON 180 Diversity and Aging
- GERON 190 Death and Dying (NEW COURSE coming soon)
- GERON 240 Policy and Aging
- GERON 350 Families in Later Life
- GERON 355 Service Delivery Issues for Aging Populations
- GERON 415 Environmental Gerontology
- GERON 441 Global Aging Field Placement II

Questions?

Email gerontology@umb.edu